

Specifications and Instructions to Bidders

Bids submitted shall impose no liability or obligation on the Boards of Education and the right to accept or reject any or all bids or request future bid quotations is solely at the discretion of the Board of Education. In awarding the contract, the Board of Education also reserves the right to consider all elements germane in determining the qualifications of the bidder and his agents or representatives. Any bid which is incomplete, conditional, obscure, or which contains irregularities of any kind may be rejected at the discretion of the Board of Education.

Each bidder also shall specify in its bid the express warranty or warranties applicable to such chassis, the frequency and type of service required by the bidder or manufacturer's location or locations where such service must be performed in order to maintain the warranty. The Board of Education reserves the right to consider the cost to the Board of complying with all such warranty requirements in determining the lowest and best bid.
